No Greater Love
John 15:9-17

1. What are the different ways in which our culture uses the word “love” and how divergent are these uses from one another?

2. Read John 15:9. What do you think it means to be loved by Jesus in the same way the Father has loved Jesus?

3. Read John 15:10-11. What is the surprising condition for sharing in Jesus’ joy and experiencing complete joy? Why do you think this is?

4. Read John 15:12-14. Jesus’ command is extraordinarily demanding. Consider some ways in which you can even begin to show this kind of love:

5. Read John 15:15. Jesus’ explanation of why he calls his disciples his friends is unexpected. What are the implications for us if the label “friend” applies to us as well (cf. 15:27)?

6. Read John 15:16-17. What is the fruit that Jesus commands his disciples to bear?

Why do you think this is the condition for being granted “whatever you ask”?
