

"...lest we drift away"

Hebrews 1:1-2:4 (page 1001)

Do you think it is possible for you to drift away from Jesus?

1. In these last days, God has spoken through his Son

God reveals himself progressively, and finally in Jesus.

Jesus is Lord of all, past, present and future

To be spoken to by Jesus beats any other voice/message we will receive.

2. No other word is in the same league as Jesus

For to which of the _____ did God ever say, "You are my Son, today I've begotten you"?

When he brings _____ into the world, he says, "Let all God's angels worship him."

And, "You, _____, laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning,

We hear Jesus speaking most clearly in the New Testament

3. Jesus is the last word on salvation.

Don't neglect Jesus, because there are no more salvations coming.

Drifting from Jesus begins when we stop valuing his word.

What is most likely to lead you away from Jesus?

What are your priorities in life?

How will you organise your life, so you'll pay attention to Jesus?
